“Hundreds of children expected at Downtown Orillia’s Great Easter Egg Hunt”

Downtown Orillia - On Saturday April 3rd, hundreds of children will scour the streets of Downtown Orillia in search of colourful hidden Easter eggs during the Great Easter Egg Hunt. “Children 12 under are encouraged to come with their families to our beautiful Downtown, hunt for colourful plastic eggs and trade them in for chocolate courtesy of Apple Annie’s in front of the Opera House” said Lisa Thomson-Roop Manager of Marketing & Public Affairs. “The Easter Bunny will also be on hand from 9:30-noon, greeting children and painting their faces for free”.

The Great Easter Egg Hunt in Downtown Orillia is an annual event hosted by the more than 200 businesses in Downtown Orillia. The event runs Saturday April 3rd, 2009, 9:30am to noon.
